Hi-Y Carnival Will Aid World Youth Fund Drive

Weeks of planning and enthusiastic work on the part of members of Albany Hi-Y clubs will culminate in a carnival at the YMCA Building Saturday, May 10, to raise funds for the aid of young people in war devastated lands of Europe and Asia.

The Albany youngsters hope to raise $500 as their share in the campaign now being conducted throughout the United States and Canada to raise $8,650,000 for the World Youth Fund.

According to Elmer F. Coble, executive Secretary of the Albany Hi-Y, the money realized from the drive will be used primarily to lead young people in war torn lands back to the ways of decency and constructive thinking. Other aims of the program include the restoration of leadership and basic facilities in the YMCA in places which suffered so heavily during the war.

ANNOUNCE WINNER IN DRAWING AT TONY'S RADIO LAB

MORGAN'S MEANDERINGS

By M. S. T.

The city council had a quiet session last Monday night. No one jammed the chambers to speak his piece on things of import and a minimum of business was carried through with a maximum of efficiency. The main event on the agenda placed the council on record as endorsing Assembly Bill 2012. This bill, now under study by the state's lawmakers will provide a public recreation commission in California. If passed it will contribute greatly to the battle against juvenile delinquency.

A new bright spot has been added to San Pablo Ave., in Albany. It is the neon sign now adorning the front of the Albany 5-10-15 Cent Store.

Police Chief Stanley Williams, Sgt. Art Smith and Patrolman Bob Turley went to Sacramento Tuesday for a meeting of the State Identification Bureau. This group, composed of peace officers of ten Northern California cities, meets once a month to compare notes and exchange ideas on identification.

After 21 years of wedded bliss Harry and Freeda Bolton managed that long planned second honeymoon this year and recently returned from two weeks at Santa Barbara. They made the trip in their brand new gas-buggy and report a "swell time." Mrs. B. is the (Continued on page two)

P.T.A. to Gather Clothing to Aid Europe's Youth

The Student Welfare department of the Berkeley-Albany Council of Parent-Teacher Associations is sponsoring a clothing collection for children in devastated areas of Western Europe and underprivileged children in rural districts of the United States.

The drive is scheduled for May 5-9. Any usable garments or shoes may be brought to the schools. Any person who does not have contact with the schools and has a personal contribution of clothing to make, telephone Berkeley 5256-J or write to 2200 McGee Avenue, Berkeley, and the bundle will be picked up.

Save-the-Children Federation will care for the details of shipment. The clothes will be sent directly to schools and distributed to the needy. Through whole-hearted cooperation, many children will be benefited. The project is in the interest of children to further education by giving assistance where the need is great.

Pre-School Party Takes Gaslight Period as Theme

The gas-light era had its night when the Albany Pre-School Mothers Club gave its semi-annual party at the Albany Recreation Center, Friday evening, April 25. Following dinner and community singing, the Floradora Sextet entertained with a can can. The group, directed by Mrs. George Bush, included Mesdames C. H. Senne, F. M. Brown, Alan Klein, T. K. Ulyatt, and Wilhelm Schaser. A fashion review of clothes worn during that period brought (Continued on page four)

A typographical error in "circulars" distributed by Villa's Markets priced Oxydol at 12 cents (12c) for a large package. The correct price should have been 29 cents (29c). This item is correctly advertised in this week's Albany Times.

Soroptimists Meet With Rotarians to Hear Father Hammond

The Soroptimists Club held a joint meeting with the Albany Rotary Club Tuesday, April 30, at Gaeta's Coffee Shop. The Rotarians supplied the program which featured a talk on juvenile delinquency by Father Richard Hammond, Dean of Priests for Alameda County and Pastor of St. Anthony's Parish in Oakland.

Ted Williams officiated as president in behalf of the Rotarians and presented the speaker. Soroptimist President Claire McGaw turned over chairmanship of the day to Betty Allison after a short welcoming address.

Newlyweds Return From Honeymoon

After a honeymoon of two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marini (Patricia Chapman) have returned to Albany. The honeymooners spent some time at "Chapman's Hide-out," summer home of the bride on the Russian River, with side trips to Clear Lake and Reno, Nev.

They were married on April 13 at the Northbrae Community Church with Dr. Sanford Fleming, President of the Berkeley Baptist Divinity School officiating. 350 guests attended the ceremony. A reception at the Hillside Club followed the wedding.

Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey O. Chapman of 617 Adams St. She chose her two sisters, Mrs. Kay Doyle and Mrs. Howard Wiedemann as bridesmaids. An old friend of high school and college, Mrs. H. K. Thomas, was her matron of honor. A niece of the groom, little Andrea Marini was the flower girl.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marini of Crockett. His brother, A. J. Marini, of Albany, and a brother-in-law, Herbert Boucke of Crockett, served as ushers. Tani Narfi, a friend of many years, officiated as best man. Charles served with the Army Air Forces in the European theater.

BARN DANCE MAY 9 IN MARIN AUD.

Albanyites may "swing their partners to and fro" in real old time barn dance style next Friday night, May 9, when the Marin Dad's Club and the Marin P.T.A. hold their first annual Barn Dance in the Marin School Auditorium.

Entertainment will be varied and the sponsors promise a full program with never a dull moment. In addition to fine music for dancing, both modern and old time, the seven-piece orchestra booked for the dance will present a series of specialty numbers. As an added attraction there will be several exhibition dances, including a genuine old fashioned square dance by the "Nod and Curtsy Club," a Russian peasant dance and a Silician Tarantello by the Marin School Dance Group under the direction of Dave Boyce.

The auditorium will be decorated with a barn in the background, scarecrows, hay, cows and all the usual barnyard critters. Guests are urged to wear anything from jeans to juniors Indian suit or grandma's calico and bustle. Costume is optional, however.

Tickets, selling for 50 cents, may be bought from any merchant displaying a dance poster. Ample refreshments are promised and a door prize, a table model G.E. radio, will be awarded to some lucky dancer. Proceeds from the dance will go into a fund to aid student activities at Marin school.

Joyce Coulon Married At Sunday Ceremony In Northbrae Church

At a Sunday afternoon ceremony at the Northbrae Community Church on April 20, Joyce Coulon became the bride of Gene Duschka. Many guests attended the nuptials, officiated over by Reverend Laurence Cross. Joyce chose as her matron of honor, her sister, Mrs. F. N. Ebert. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Duschka of Nebraska. The bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. E. Coulson reside at 920 Neilson St., Albany.

A miscellaneous shower was given the bride-elect on April 13 at 2 p. m. in the Finish Hall, Berkeley. Mrs. Ebert and an aunt, Mrs. E. A. Fisher of San Francisco, were co-hostesses of the shower. A buffet table was set for 65 guests and Joyce received many lovely gifts.

Bon Voyage Parties Honor Local Couple On Trip to Europe

When Mr. and Mrs. George Murison departed on April 9 for a visit in Scotland and Europe with relatives, they went with memories of lovely farewell parties from friends in Albany and Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Curtis feted the Murisons at a bon voyage party in their Oakland home with many friends attending. Table decorations for the party were in a nautical motif and the honored couple received many fine gifts. Present at the party were Messrs. and Mesdames: G. MacKenzie, J. MacDonald, Elmer Lindquist and son, Wayne; Frank Black, Ted Lindquist, Les Bothun, John Coupin, J. R. Havens; Mesdames Eleanor Johnson, Birdie Figone, Louise Curtis, Lois Cook, Leona Hallquist, Miss Albert Lindquist and Messrs. George Murison of Seattle, Erwin Burner and Axel Jacobsen.

A dessert bridge honoring Mrs. Murison was given by Mrs. Alice Carrol, 604 Key Route Blvd. Mrs. Murison received many beautiful handkerchiefs and won first prize at the bridge table.

Present at the party were the Mesdames Freda Mooney, Bob Nibbe, Gladys Parker, Elsie Harford, Charlotte Malone, Florence Curtis, Eleanor Johnson and Ethel Streeter.

After visiting Murison's father and mother at Rosehearty, Scotland, the couple will go to Bergen, Norway where they will see an aunt of Mrs. Murison, Mrs. Ingelborg Schjott, sister of the late Mrs. A. L. Lindquist of Albany—then on to Skara, Sweden to visit another aunt, Miss Elisia Lindquist.

Kay's Specialty Shop First Albany Business To Reduce Prices 10%

With a 10-day period from May 1 to 10 during which all merchandise will sell at 10 per cent less than the price marked, Kay's Specialty Shop, 1407 Solano Ave., will be the first Albany store to comply with President Truman's request for price reductions.

Kay Petry, owner of Kay's announces that this is not a sale, as she has received no reductions from her manufacturers. It is her contribution in the present drive to bring down the cost of living. Hats, coats, suits and many more of the fine new summer items of apparel offered at Kay's popular specialty shop will go at reduced prices.

It's Getting Hot In the Spring Softball League

By ED HOWELL

The Albany Recreation Department Spring Softball League continues to be a nip and tuck battle with four teams still tied for first place.

The Marin Dads defeated the Albany Junior Chamber of Commerce 6 to 1 when Douglas chucked his third one-hit ball game in three weeks, in the second game at James Kenney.

In the opening contest, the Berkeley Y.M.I. remained in a tie for first place when they defeated the Cerrito Civic Club by a score of 7 to 4. The Berkeley Y.M.I. scored 3 runs in the first when Marsicano led off with a hit; Nicor sacrificed him to second; Brisenio walked; Navarro hit a double scoring Marsicano and Brisenio; and Gimble singled scoring Navarro.

Over at Memorial Park, the El Cerrito Y.M.I. No. 96 defeated the Albany Eagles 13 to 1. Pitcher Stan Smith of the Y.M.I. held the hard hitting Eagles to 6 hits and gave up but 1 run in the 6th inning. Manager McClain's hard hitting Y.M.I. boys collected 9 hits and out-classed the Eagles at bat and in the field scoring 7 runs on 5 hits in the third and scoring 4 runs on 3 hits in the fourth. The Eagles scored their lone run in the sixth on Neiper's hit, a stolen base and two infield outs.

In the second contest, the Albany Maccabees remained in a tie for first place honors by taking a forfeited game from the Police and Firemen who failed to field a team at game time. The Maccabees are a much improved ball club and will be plenty tough to beat from now on with a brother combination of left-handed Merle Gould and right-handed Warren Gould.

LIONS CLUB TO SPONSOR STAGE PLAY

For the first time in many years residents of Albany will have the opportunity of seeing a top-ranking stage play when the Lions Club brings the Berkeley Community Players to the stage of the Cornell School Auditorium on May 9 and 10 in the comedy "Kiss and Tell." Presented last week in Berkeley by the Community Players, the play was acclaimed by critics as most successful.

"Kiss and Tell" had a long, successful run in New York and San Francisco, was used in Hollywood for Shirley Temple's first starring role in many years and presented on the radio as a popular series involving further adventures of the central character, Corliss Archer.

The same cast of players from the Berkeley community group will be seen when the comedy makes its appearance in Albany. Curtain time has been set at 8:30 and tickets are still available at the nominal price of 75 cents. Seating capacity of the Cornell Auditorium is limited and playgoers are advised to secure their tickets early. Tickets may be bought at either the O. A. Nelson Co., Solano at Kains, or the Solano Florist, 1545 Solano.

Profits from the play will be used by the Albany Lions Club to further their work in aiding the blind.

Marin P.T.A. Meeting

Marin Parent Teacher Association Executive Board will meet on Tuesday, May 6th at 1:30 p. m. in the teacher's lunch room.

Mrs. George Klarmann and Mrs. Truman Gould will represent Marin Parent-Teacher Association at the California State Convention of Parents and Teachers in Long Beach this month.

largest class of candidates this post will induct into the Legion this year. As the Legion year for Albany Post is near its close this will be the last class or group of candidates initiated until new officers are elected and installed. The ritualistic team will be under the direction of Walker Lyon, a past commander of the Post.

Says Jack Hamilton, membership chairman, "This new class of candidates will help to bring the membership of the Post near the total of the Legion year in 1946. But we will still be far below the quota of 925 members set by the State Department of the American Legion."

William Huskins, chosen by the faculty of Albany High School to be the junior boy at Boy's State this year, will be introduced to the Post by John Robins, Bay State Chairman for Post 292. Boy's State will be held in Sacramento in June under the auspices of the American Legion State Department.

In keeping with Post visitations, Commander Mason Layton reports that William Nicholas, Commander and a representative group from the John K. Evans Post No. 733 will descend upon Albany Post like a swarm of locust Friday evening to extend an invitation to local Legionnaires to attend their "Hi Tension Electric and Hi Pressure Gas Jinks" which is to be staged in the Oakland Memorial Building June 6. "As the John K. Evans Post had the largest representation of all local posts at Albany's 15th Annual Show," stated Commander Layton, "we ought to return the favor and attend in force their First Annual Show."

Albany Post will enter a team in the 10th District American Legion Junior Baseball League at the request of James A. Sartain, District Commissioner. The Junior Baseball Committee, under Vincent Sherry, is now looking over the stars available at Albany and St. Mary's High Schools. Sherry is the coach of St. Mary's ballteam and a new member of Post 292. With talent available, Coach Sherry says he can make our Post's team a winner this year.

VFW Represents North County in 10th Dist. Ball League

Commander R. H. Ham has revealed that Albany Post, 2685, VFW, has been selected to represent the North County in the 10th District baseball league. Each district in the Department of California will form a league with games to start some time in May. The winners in these leagues will vie for Department championship in their states with final playoff to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, at the National Convention in September.

The 10th District league will be under the sponsorship of an Oakland hardware firm. They will donate all trophies and awards. Veterans who wish to play in this league may secure all particulars at the Veterans Memorial Building, Tuesday evening, May 6. All expenses of teams traveling to Cleveland for the final playoff will be paid by the V.F.W.

Interest Growing in Berkeley Elections Scheduled for May 6

As interest in the May 6 Berkeley election surged upward, Co-chairmen Wright Morton and Prof. Harry W. Shepherd of the Council-Manager League, civic group interested in Good Government, announced that heavy support for their candidates was pouring in from all parts of the city.

The League, composed of civic minded citizens from business, labor, the professions, fraternal, civic groups and organizations representing a cross-section of the city, has sponsored Fitch Robertson for mayor, and the re-election of Councilmen Joseph L. McKee, Kent D. Pursel and Edward A. Martin, incumbents.

Supervisor Thomas E. Caldecott, one of hundreds of citizens actively supporting the league slate, declared, "I strongly endorse Fitch Robertson, Joe McKee, Kent Pursel and Ed Martin because they have constantly had the best interests of all sections of our city at heart. Under their incumbency, Berkeley has had efficient, economical government. Our city today is noted nationally for good clean administration."

Surprise!

A surprise birthday dinner was given for Janet Young in her home at 1461 Marin Ave., on Tuesday night, April 29.

Guests of the evening included the Misses Nancy Tarlton, Charlotte Tarlton, Jean McElroy, Velma Monte, Thelma Tamba and Dorothy Amunsden.

Marin Dad's Club to Get Safe Driving Tips

A program of interest to all safety committees in Albany will be presented at the regular monthly meeting of the Marin Dad's Club to be held Tuesday evening, May 6 at 7:30 in the Marin School auditorium. Following the regular business meeting, Clinton Dreyer, manager of the Eastbay Safety Council will present a number of films on driver instructions. Titles will include "Wanton Murder," "Lifestream of the City" and "Screw Drivers and Screw Jays."
